

Order 2018 Brochure Here

Dear Catherine,

It's the height of another busy tourist season in Iceland... and around Iceland ProCruises that we already receiving about next year, the 2018 summer season, which is expected to bring even more people to the trendy North Atlantic destination.

Now is the time for anyone craving an Iceland vacation to start planning and make reservations. First and foremost, because you can get a 20% early bird discount on our cruises. And secondly, because you don't want to end up like some of the tourists described in the story below.

This month's newsletter also has the breakdown on the new Iceland routes between Philadelphia and Reykjavik, as well as news about the famous Blue Lagoon.

Enjoy the best of this summer... and definitely start craving about Iceland and Greenland for next year!

Best,

June A. Jensen

Brotherly Love to Iceland Nonstop

Iceland launched its 18th North American gateway on May 15—an inaugural flight from Philadelphia, PA, just beyond business and leisure travelers between the City of Brotherly Love and Europe via Reykjavik.

The seasonal service will operate four days a week—Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays MOSC.

Early Birds Got More Than Just a Worm

Iceland is selling out. No joke! The big North Atlantic island is more popular than ever this summer as fans of nature, history and outdoor adventures flock to the island that Vikings settled more than a thousand years ago. MOSC.

For Sale: Blue Lagoon, slightly used, good condition

Just launched reports in the May issue that the Blue Lagoon—one of the world's most popular attractions—is up for sale. Or at least a part of it. MOSC.

MS Cruis, the power lobby that has owned a large share of the Blue Lagoon complex since its creation, is seeking a 50% stake in the luxury attraction. MOSC.

Iceland in 8 Days

For those who don't have the time for a longer cruise, Iceland ProCruises offers an 8-Day Cruise MOSC of the North Atlantic island about the Atlantic Ocean. MOSC.
