Dear Colleague,
I've just returned from a three-week trip visiting our clients Zanzibar in East Africa and Gaborone in Southern Africa and was reminded how special it is to make a living in some of the coolest places on earth with guests.
I went from the luxury of a SkySafari in Kenya and a villa in Zanzibar to sleeping in public tents in Botswana. Very different and both excellent experiences. My next international travels are full and then back to Raigonga, an area I can visit again and again and again.

Thanks so much for making the 2017-2018 season a record year for Hotel Las Torres and Gaborone Sun. Meanwhile, the 2018-2019 season is always looking strong. Please book your clients as early as possible to get your preferred dates — or make sure people have flexible schedules.

Click for your first information on our "W in Winter" program at Torres del Paine, the Hotel Las Torres all-inclusive programs, and our new mountain bike offerings on the Reserva Cero Paine.

As always, don't hesitate to reach out.
