

Call Us: 404-993-6116

Order 2018 Brochures Here

Dear Colleagues,

As always seems to be the case, our dream of a full-back August turned into a month jam-packed with fun vacations, birthdays, weddings, bridal showers and Virtuoso Week, with a few sales calls thrown into the mix.

In this edition of the newsletter we share links to our latest webinars. One about exploring East Africa hosted by new Chad & Peacock Off Duty Gary Segal and Liz Chell, the other one introduces EcoTraining and its wildlife courses in South Africa, Botswana and Kenya.

Part one of Jessie's trip report on her recent visit to Uganda and Rwanda appears below, plus updates on the refurbished spa at Akasha Cottages Lodge, Chad & Peacock's horseback safaris, and the ever-changing East African visa process.

We also have news about Miguel Jimbuu Comas, the new GM of SkySafari in Botswana, and an upcoming SkySafari photo tour hosted by one of Africa's leading wildlife photographers.

Please let us know if we can assist with anything!

Best,

Jane + Jessie
Representing Cool Companies in Cool Places

Sign Off the Press: Our EcoTraining Webinar
Learn all about our newest African desert by watching this webinar hosted by Corrie Sotnikowski, sales and product manager of the South African safari company — "The Inspiration to EcoTraining".
EcoTraining offers 60 custom-tailored educational wildlife courses, per year opportunities and high school programs. MORE

Akasha Coffee Lodge Spa Perks Up
Located in the lush gardens of Akasha Cottages Lodge, Peaberries Spa is back again following a major refurbishment that makes it one of the top luxury health and beauty spas in East Africa.
To celebrate the relaunch, Peaberries has introduced a brand new Coffee Scrub & Body Wrap. MORE

Evolution East Africa with Chad & Peacock's Liz Webber
Gary Segal, the new general manager of Chad & Peacock Safaris, joins company co-founder Liz Chell for a webinar on traveling to East Africa. MORE

Horsing Around In Africa
Are you already an "Africa hand" and looking for something new to do on safari? How about an equine safari in some of Kenya's best wildlife parks with Chad & Peacock?
Kenya's horseback heritage dates back to the first European explorers. MORE

East Africa Visa Tips
News from Alpha Travel for anyone who's thinking of traveling to multiple countries on their upcoming safari and applying for an East Africa Tourist Visa.
If your clients are applying in advance, the application must be submitted to the country (Kenya, Uganda or Rwanda) where they are first arriving/landing. MORE

Eye in the Sky: New Photo Tour with Luke Messery
SkySafari has launched a new photography tour hosted by award-winning wildlife photographer, cameraman and Lake Malawi ambassador Luke Messery.
Messery has been honored as both the Global Wildlife Photographer of the Year. MORE

Miguel Takes to the African Skies
Miguel Jimbuu Comas was recently appointed as the new general manager for SkySafari by Mwanani, which offers upscale aerial safaris in Tanzania and Kenya, with more than 12 years of experience in the tourism industry focusing on air transport. MORE

Trip Report: Ultimate Uganda & Rwanda (Part One)
I (Jessie) recently joined Akasha Cottages Lodge as an "Ultimate Uganda & Rwanda" safari in East Africa. This is the first installment of my trip report — on the places I stayed in Uganada.
This was one of the most educational, amazing trips I have ever been on. MORE

Want to learn more? Watch our Webinars here.

Want to receive more news from us? Or need us? Click here

Contact Jane Behrend at +1 (804) 993-6116 or Jessie Bligh at +1 (770) 377-8892 jane@emmagroup.com
jessie@emmagroup.com