

SMALL SHIP CRUISING

Order Small Ship Cruising Brochures Here

Dear Colleagues,
Hope you're enjoying the start of the holiday season. We're looking forward to some downtime and most importantly, not getting on planes until the new year!
An important reminder — the early bird schedule for July/August/September ends December 31st. A few of our higher category cabins are still available for 2015. But they're going fast. So have your clients take advantage of our offer now. And remember, it's not too early to start booking for 2016.
For those of you who don't speak Old Norse (which is probably everyone reading this), our December newsletter includes a handy guide to pronunciation for the ports of call.
We've also got the latest news on the Buti volcano from the Sea Trek, Sailing Adventure team and the lowdown on their popular birding cruises in Indonesia.
Enjoy the holiday season and your time with loved ones!
